one of us has in mind can be accommodated in your brisk remarks, and the helpful introductory statement and insights that the Executive Director will highlight for our consideration should be limited in view of our time constraint. My plea is that we move fast on our initial exchange of how we handle the agenda to allow ourselves more time for substance and advice to the Executive Director on financing sustainable development, the role of UNEP in promoting the implementation of multilateral environmental agreements, the contribution of UNEP to the seventh session of the Commission on Sustainable Development, and the reform of UNEP.
